

Paris

Food, Fashion, Flirtation a virtual tour through the City Of Lights

American scholar of French culture Rebecca Ruquist takes us on a virtual tour of Paris, featuring her favorite places for gourmet goodies, beautiful clothing, secret sales, and romantic inspiration.

Rebecca provides an insider's view of the City of Lights based on her 12+ years of experience living part-time in Paris. Using photos, video and film clips, and music she shows the city "sous tous ses angles," in all its lights.

This program is for everyone who appreciates the beauty and charm of this unique city. What better way to spend a cold winter's night!
